Hardcore is a 1979 American crime neo noir drama film written and directed by Paul Schrader and starring George C. Scott, Peter Boyle, Ilah Davis and Season Hubley.The story concerns a father searching for his daughter, who has vanished only to appear in a pornographic film.Writer-director Schrader had previously written the screenplay for Martin Scorsese's Taxi Driver, and both films share a ...

Hardcore (1979 film) - Wikipedia
Troubadour is the generic term for poets and minstrels who flourished in southern France and in Northern Italy from the 11th through the 13th centuries. Called trouveres in northern France and meistersingers in Germany, these artists elevated storytelling as an art, and often entertained huge crowds at fairs, weddings and other medieval celebrations.
